

March 2019 Newsletter

Greetings!

So I've had the procedure on my shoulder and I'm fighting fit again! I can't tell you what a relief it is to be able to put both arms in the air and behind my back with no pain. Bliss!

Both Mums and babies are doing well and thank you all for your good wishes.

Lisa's getting on with her extra training now and as you read this will have already completed Pedicures and Facials. She still has tinting and waxing to do over the next couple of weeks. There will be a gradual transition between Lisa and myself on Wednesdays, so that very soon Lisa will be doing all her Beauty treatments on a Wednesday. I'll still be around on those days working on reception or helping out with some things that Lisa isn't qualified for yet. See below for Lisa's offer to you.

Hope you've been enjoying the brief spell of better weather we've had and maybe this has turned your thoughts to getting your toes out for the spring and summer seasons. As I always say though please give us plenty of notice for appointments, so that we don't disappoint you if we can't fit you in.
