

May 2017 Newsletter

Greetings!

There's a real buzz at the salon at the moment. We're all super excited to have taken delivery of our new Make-up range from Jane Iredale. Hardeep and Beth will be having a mini training session on May 9th and then off to do their full training in July. In the meantime the range is here in a lovely display, so please feel free to pop in and have a look and try out the testers. We're also hosting an Open afternoon/evening in June, read on further for more info about that.

So we have said goodbye to our Spray Tan service in order to make room for the Make-Up, and there's been lots of reorganisation and decorating going on too! I must admit I'm ready for my holiday which is only a few days away now!

I could do with booking in for a Fruity Foot Fest, the Passionfruit foot scrub smells divine, that'll really get me in the mood for Mauritius!
