

November 2017 Newsletter

Greetings!

As you read this I will be preparing to travel to India for 9 days, and Hardeep has just returned!

We will be running our popular Frosty Morning Facial Promotion in January and February again next year, but we have been asked by some of you if you can buy a voucher for this treatment to give as a Christmas present. So we have decided this is a brilliant idea and have special vouchers ready with Christmassy gift boxes. The vouchers will be valid till the end of February 2018, so if you buy one for a loved one make sure you let them know it's a short expiry date!

As I mentioned in the last newsletter our prices have now gone up this month. You can get a new brochure in the salon, download one from the website or get one here.

Still available till the end of November.
