

October 2017 Newsletter

Greetings!

I've said this before, but I'm going to say it again - I love the autumn! I love the changing colours and I even love the nights drawing in. I love to get home, draw the curtains, put my jim jams on and snuggle up for the evening - closing off the outside world.....bliss!!

Now I know not everyone has the same feelings about this time of year especially when the clocks go back, so why not turn the clocks back in another way by having one of our Autumn Glow facials which was so popular last year. We've even held the price for you!

Right up to date now though, we've added a couple of extra services for the gentlemen by request. Using hot wax we will now remove excess nostril and ear hair. These are available to book online. A little eye watering but well worth doing.

As you read this I will be on my first week of Jury Service. Not that I'll be able to reveal any details, but I'll let you know about the process when I get back to the salon. Although I will be on countdown to my holiday by then, so I may have to bore you with details about that instead!

It is regrettable that we have to increase some of our service charges, but as I'm sure you are aware the cost of everything is going up! I've held off for as long as possible but the inevitable is happening this November.

Any bookings that have already been made for November (if made before 3rd October) will be held at the old price. Any made for November after 3rd October will be at the new rates.

There will be a new pricelist available in the salon or to download online coming soon.

Don't forget you can book your appointments in the comfort of your own home at any time of the day or night.

Don't Put Off Feeling Great Any Longer!

From January 2018 I will no longer be working on Saturdays. My teaching commitments for NO HANDS massage are now such that I need to have some weekends off to have a life! Therefore Alanis will be taking over my Saturday Beauty duties alternating as usual with Hardeep.

A couple of reminders for you:

October 14th is the last day we will accept old pound coins.

October 28th/29th the clocks go back by 1 hour. An extra hour in bed....yippee!

With Warmest Wishes

Wendy
