

September 2019 Newsletter

Greetings!

The children are back at school and the evenings have started to draw in, that's a sure sign that autumn has arrived! See our product of the month for something to really help soothe your skin after the ravages of all this hot weather.

You will also see below that Lisa has now had her knee surgery. I would ask you to please bear with me for just another month, as I really am the last one standing for September! You will find the door locked when I am with clients and I won't be able to get to the phone straight away. So please save yourself a walk on the off chance that you can get through the door! Give me a call and leave a message, I will get back to you as soon as I can.

I know that I am already fully booked for September, barring any cancellations, so the cancellation list is growing too! Things will get easier from October onwards, thank you for your understanding throughout these last months, it is much appreciated. xx
